

Maximum Contribution Worksheet - 2023

	Traditional Before-Tax	Roth After-Tax
Participant Contributions (Salary Reduction)
Base Limit - $22,500	$ <input type="text"/>	$ <input type="text"/>
Over 50 Catch-up - $7,500	$ <input type="text"/>	$ <input type="text"/>
Participant's Total	$ <input type="text"/>	$ <input type="text"/>
Participant's GRAND Total (Cannot Exceed $30,000)		$ <input type="text"/>

Employer/Church Contributions

Contributions	$ <input type="text"/>
Employer's GRAND Total	$ <input type="text"/>

Combined Contributions

Participants UNDER Age 50 (Cannot Exceed $66,000)	$ <input type="text"/>
Participants OVER Age 50 (Cannot Exceed $73,500)	$ <input type="text"/>

* Any limit listed above is subject to your taxable compensation. Contributions may not exceed your taxable compensation - the amount that appears in Box 1 on the participant's W-2 form - thus excluding ministerial housing allowance.

 This worksheet may be used to provide guidance to maximize contributions to the Ministers' Retirement Plan (MRP). Before you make a decision concerning your MRP contribution limits, you should contact your tax advisor, accountant, or other financial professional.